Boston College
Assistant Professor of Operations Management

We are seeking applicants for two full-time, tenure-track faculty positions at the level of Assistant Professor. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Operations Management or related discipline and an outstanding research and teaching record or potential. The appointment is expected to begin September 1, 2015. More information on the position can be found at: http://www.bc.edu/content/bc/schools/csom/departments/operations/faculty_openings.html

Boston College is one of the nation's best and most selective research universities. Founded by the Society of Jesus in 1863, the University celebrates its sesquicentennial anniversary this year. The main campus is located in Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts, six miles from downtown Boston. The University, with 9,000 undergraduate and nearly 5,000 graduate students Boston College ranked #31 in U.S. News & World Report "Best Colleges: National Universities 2014."

The Carroll School of Management provides undergraduate and graduate management education attuned to the needs of today's business world. Aligned with the philosophy of Boston College, we develop leaders and managers who bring an ethical perspective to business decision making. Approximately 2,000 undergraduate and 800 graduate students are enrolled in the school. The undergraduate program ranked #4 in Bloomberg BusinessWeek’s “Best Undergraduate Business Schools 2014” and the full-time master in business administration program ranked #45 in U.S. News & World Report’s “2014 Best Business Schools.”

Interested individuals should submit a current vita, cover letter, sample research papers, a summary of teaching evaluations (if available), and three letters of reference to Mei Xue, email: opshire2@bc.edu. Application deadline is December 1, 2014.

Department representatives will interview select candidates at the upcoming INFORMS conference in San Francisco and the Decision Sciences Institute conference in Tampa.

Boston College is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer.